IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 4, 2016

Mr. LEAHY (for himself, Mr. FRANKEN, Mr. BLUMENTHAL, Mr. DURBIN, and Mr. WHITEHOUSE) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To restore statutory rights to the people of the United States from forced arbitration.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Restoring Statutory 5       Rights and Interests of the States Act of 2016”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND INTENT.

7       (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

8           (1) Chapter 1 of title 9, United States Code
9           (commonly known as the “Federal Arbitration
10          Act”), represented an exercise of legislative power

1       that required courts to recognize private voluntary
2       agreements to arbitrate commercial disputes at a
3       time when the courts were refusing to do so on 4       grounds that arbitration represented a usurpation of 5       the authority of the courts to resolve legal disputes.

6                 (2) The Federal Arbitration Act did not, and 7       should not have been interpreted to, supplant or nul-
8       lify the legislatively created rights and remedies
9       which Congress, exercising its power under article I
10      of the Constitution of the United States, has grant-
11      ed to the people of the United States for resolving 12      disputes in State and Federal courts.

13                 (3) Recent court decisions, including AT&T Mo-14       bility v. Concepcion, 563 U.S. 333 (2011) and 15       American Express Co. v. Italian Colors Restaurant,
16       133 S.Ct. 2304 (June 20, 2013), have interpreted 17       the Federal Arbitration Act to broadly preempt
18       rights and remedies established under substantive
19       State and Federal law. As a result, these decisions
20       have enabled business entities to avoid or nullify
21       legal duties created by congressional enactment, re-
22       sulting in millions of people in the United States
23       being unable to vindicate their rights in State and 24       Federal courts.

1                         (4) States have a compelling interest in enacting 2                         rights and remedies to protect the welfare of 3                         their citizens, and the Federal Arbitration Act 4                         should not be, and should not have been, interpreted 5                         to preempt State legislation that enacted rights and 6                         remedies to protect the welfare of their citizens.

7                         (b) INTENT OF CONGRESS.—In enacting this Act, it
8                         is the intent of Congress—

9                         (1) to restate and reinstitute the primacy of 10                         congressional and State legislative bodies as the creators
11                         of the rights and remedies available to all the people
12                         of the United States;

13                         (2) to clarify that congressionally established rights and remedies may not be waived prior to the institution of a dispute by the party intended to be protected by such statute; and

17                         (3) to reinstate and reaffirm existing rights and remedies of the people of the United States enacted since the enactment of the Federal Arbitration Act regarding access to the courts that have, or may have been, abrogated or diminished.

1   SEC. 3. ARBITRATION OF FEDERAL STATUTORY CAUSES OF
2                   ACTION.

3       (a) ADJUDICATION OF FEDERAL STATUTORY RIGHTS
4   OF ACTION.—Section 2 of title 9, United States Code, is
5   amended—

6                  (1) by striking “A written” and inserting “(a)
7   IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subsection (b), 8   a written”; and

9                  (2) by adding at the end the following:

10       “(b) EXCEPTION.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to 11   a written provision that requires arbitration of a claim for 12   damages or injunctive relief brought by an individual or 13   small business concern (as defined in section 3 of the 14   Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 632)), in either an indi-15   vidual or representative capacity, arising from the alleged 16   violation of a Federal or State statute, the Constitution
17   of the United States, or a constitution of a State, unless 18   the written agreement to arbitrate is entered into by both 19   parties after the claim has arisen and pertains solely to 20   an existing claim.

21       “(c) INTERACTION WITH STATE LAW.—For pur-22   poses of subsection (a), the phrase ‘grounds as exist at 23   law or in equity for the revocation of a contract’ shall in-
24   clude a Federal or State statute, or the finding of a Fed-
25   eral or State court, that prohibits the agreement to arbit-26   rate on grounds that the agreement is unconscionable, in-

1 valid because there was no meeting of the minds, or other-
2 wise unenforceable as a matter of contract law or public
3 policy.

4       “(d) VALIDITY AND ENFORCEABILITY.—A deter-
5 mination as to whether this chapter applies to an agree-6 ment to arbitrate shall be made by a court, rather than 7 an arbitrator, irrespective of whether the party resisting
8 arbitration challenges the agreement to arbitrate specific-
9 ally or in conjunction with other terms of the contract
10 containing such agreement.”.

11 SEC. 4. VACATING AN AWARD MADE IN VIOLATION OF SEC-
12 TION 2 OF TITLE 9, UNITED STATES CODE.

13       Section 10(a) of title 9, United States Code, is 14 amended—

15           (1) in paragraph (3), by striking “or” at the 16 end;

17           (2) in paragraph (4), by striking the period at 18 the end and inserting “; or”; and

19           (3) by adding at the end the following:

20           “(5) where the arbitration took place in viola-
21 tion of section 2.”.

22 SEC. 5. EFFECTIVE DATE.

23       This Act, and the amendments made by this Act, 24 shall take effect on the date of enactment of this Act and

- 1 shall apply with respect to any dispute or claim that arises
- 2 on or after such date of enactment.
